H. F. Cooderham, Esq.,

Canada Life Building.

Dear Mr. Cooderham:

I have spoken to the Registrar about Mr. Barry's case. He tells me that it will come up, along with all the other cases in which military service has introduced new conditions, for consideration in the spring. As far as he can judge Mr. Barry seems to have a case that should get favourable consideration. I will endeavour to keep my eye upon it when these cases come up, though I do not want to promise definitely because so often I am not able to be at a committee, but will keep your letter and remind the Registrar of your letter.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
